WASHINGTON, July 30th .- A prominent Democrat to-day ridiculed the idea that bona fide workingmen constituted any great proportion of the Tammany organi-zation. Said he: "If workingmen made up an important element of John Kelly's following, he always leaves them out of the crowds he takes to political gatherings. I have seen the Tammany crowd at several Democratic Conventions. I have been among them, talked with them, and have observed them pretty closely, and as a whole they are about as tough citizens as I ever got among. Most of them looked like broken-down prize-fighters. Some had broken noses, another would be minus part of an ear, another without an eve, and so on. I don't think," he concluded, "that the workingmen in Tammany are numerous enough to cause much trouble.'

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM AND THE RAILROAD QUESTION.

Some of our esteemed Democratic con temporaries are pretending to find in the State Republican platform an ambiguity a monopoly aspect to the monopolists and an anti-monopoly appearance to antimonopolists. But that there is any difference whatever between the declaraion of doctrine as set forth in the Republican platform and the judicial pronunciation of Judge Field is simply ridiculous and absurd. For the promulgation of the decision quoted, Judge Field was made the victim of unstinted denunciation by the ournals who, standing upon the platform in which the same doctrines are distinctly pronounced, declare the sentiments to be strong, vigorous, unequivocal, unmistakable anti-monopoly doctrine. If the Chronicle did not recognize the doctrines which it has been so industriously denouncing when t saw the declaration of them in the platform, it was exceedingly stupid; if it did see and understand the re-affirmation of the doctrines laid down by the Circuit Court in the railroad tax cases, and sought o distort and misrepresent them, it was profoundly dishonest. We know of no journal in all the land that needs so much to study and act upon these truths as our contemporary. It is the very logmatism. The everlasting "I" bristles all over it. President of the Board of Health, who read the following paper: Mr. President and Gentlemen: The object of this meeting, as stated, is the consideration of means for self-protection. It is a voluntary assemblage of a few of our citizens for the purpose of devising means for warding off disease.

The question naturally arises, what is there to guard against, and why?

We all know that from the south we are liable at any moment to have brought into our midst as We all know that from the south we are hable at any moment to have brought into our midst a case of yellow fever, one of the most fatal and infectious diseases which is known to us; and it is not doubted that those conditions which favor its propagation exist in this city, as well as in several other populous centers of the Sacramento valley. Already a case has been reported from Tucson A. T. and although every possible om Tucson, A. T., and although every possi recaution is being taken to prevent the disea precaution is being taken to prevent the disease from spreading and entering our State, yet it is an established fact that the disease under consideration may reach us even without the supposed necessary accompanyment of an infected individual. The clothing, bedding, or other baggage of an individual or family from an infected region may carry the germs of the disease, and if opened out or exposed in an atmosphere favorable for their propagation, may be the means of starting the disease amongst us. The manifest duty, therefore, of our citizens is to make such preparation as will afford the least o make such preparation as will afford the least ossible opportunity for the spreading of the isease should it reach us, and that it will do so ere long there is but little doubt, for it is now epidemic in Sonora, Mexico. It is therefore knocking at our doors, warning us of the dan ger that threatens us. Let us be up and doing. Let the saddening impress of the direful epinake manifest to all of us the importance of the

Although, in the opinion of the most com tent observers generally, it is not regarded strictly as a filth disease, yet all recognize the fact that it is far more likely to become devel-oped, and reap its richest harvest where filthy or insanitary conditions exist. The history and read of the disease in all countries in which i s ever taken root attest this fact. What has been said regarding yellow fever applies with equal force to that other disease, cholera, which threatens us from the East. In these days of rapid transit and speedy interication between the East and the West

We are, therefore, in imminent danger from both of those referred to, and it becomes us to put our house in order and adopt such means for their prevention and restriction as experi-ence and observation have taught us to be the ost efficient. That it is not necessary that a fected individual should reach us to start th sease was well exemplified in the epidemic o tolera which spread devastation throughou portions of our country in 1873. It will, per haps, be recollected that in that year three dis tinct outbreaks of cholera took place almost simultaneously in as many different and widely separated sections of the United States. Immiants from Holland, Sweden and Russia had onal effects were unpacked at Carthage, row River, Minn., and at Yankton, D. T., spectively. All sewers, e same manner. All stables, barns, alleys and reets should be thoroughly cleansed and kept of all defects, or, if need be, the complete re-construction of the whole system in any house or premises. This is regarded as being of the attmost importance, for it is a fact that there are many houses in this city, as well as elsewhere, in which it were far better that no plumbing whatever existed. In fact, it would seem as if in many instances the plumbing was constructed for the special purpose of conveying foul gases and the products of decomposition generally into the bed-rooms and living apartments of the dwellings. seizer desired to describe a plan of machiner, hat he would construct at his own expense for lredging sand from the river and depositing it in China Slough.

L. A. Upson moved that the entire suggestions made by Dr. Cluness be indorsed as the sense of the meeting, and that a committee of five be appointed to present the same to the Board of Trustees. Seconded by Frank Miller. China Slough. may prove fatal.

DR. LAINE Was called for and gave his views. He said that savages throughout the world erected their homes on elevated ground, and distant from stagnant or standing water. He was in favor of where sewage was only gained by artificial and expensive means. He was in favor of pumping into the river. [Applause.] We must protect ourselves first. Applause.] He then pictured what Sacramento would be if cholera should break out in Chinatown, and bore down heavily on the city authorities for not improving the sanitary condition of the Chinese quarter. Once fill China slough and clean up those quarters, and then you can with some reasonable propriety call upon citizens throughout the city to clean up their little premises. [Applause.] He said he was creditably informed that pumps could be put in the river that would fill the slough for from three to nine cents per yard. He said the railroad company was interested as much in this matter, if

J. Gardiner was called upon for his views, and, in response read a communication which he had prepared for this paper, and which appears in another column of this issue. He maintained that the filling in of the alley between H and I streets, from Second to Sixth, a very small portion of China slough, by teams, as proposed by the Trustees, would cost one-third as much as the filling of the entire slough by he is s much as the filling of the entire slough by his aid the Trustees had procured the consent majority of the property holders bordering on he alley between H and I and Second and Sixthreets, and had ordered the same filled. [Apause.] He was of the opinion that the slough buld be filled up in one winter by running a time from the Tweltth street bridge to the Dr. Laine claimed that the Trustees were not ing right in not filling up the slough entirely F. R. Dray said the city had not the means at their command to do the work proposed by some. The Trustees were figuring on doing the ward shaft, cutting off his right hand and best they could with the money in sight. Why such a cry about China slough at this time, when we have lived with it under our nose for the past thirty years. China slough is private property. It was said for a long time that there was a living spring in the middle of the lake hat furnished sufficient water to keep the entire ody fresh. Let us see if we cannot do some-hing with what we have. More sewers are needed, especially in the eastern portion of the ore than we can do.

The motion of Mr. Upson was then put and seing called for, said he thought the stench of light fribute to the board of Health and the Health Officer. He hoped that public opinion would sustain them in their action. He hoped bublic opinion would cry out against the filthy bools of Chinatown, until they, the agents or pools of Chinatown, until they, the agents or the owners of the property, be compelled by the strong arm of the law to cleanse their premises, and no longer menace the health of our people. [Applause.] He then read the city ordinances relative to the powers and duties of the Health Officer. He also read the ordinance relative to the maintenance of slaughter-houses within the city limits ledge themselves to the support of the Health flicer and Board of Health. Carried. The Chair appointed in compliance with Mr. Upson's resolution the following committee: Messis. Dr. W. R. Cluness, Joseph Steffens, Frank Miller, F. R. Dray and James McGuire.

What is necessary at this time is agitation These sanitary measures will not admit of de lay, and must be taken up at once and handle without gloves. He moved that when the meet ing adjourned that they do so until Saturday evening, and that the committee of five be re-quested to be ready to report at that time. The motion was seconded and unanimously adopted. A. S. Hopkins gave his views on China slough year. He said the system of cesspools through-out the city was radically wrong and would have to be corrected ere long. They caused the soil to become full of poisonous matter, which found its way through the earth to the slough and the waters of the latter by that means betion of "eligibles" must be post disance should be abated even if it took fire to the latter part of September.

Portion of China Slough to be Filled-Interesting Facts About Sewage. The City Trustees met at 10 A. M. yester lay, to transact certain special business. The Soliciting Committee from the Naor a donation from the city for the purpose of assisting in defraying the expenses achieved in both England and Scotland. takes place on the 9th of September. Trustee Gutenberger said he had thoroughly onsidered the matter in all its bearings.

While it was true that the city funds were not large, yet he regarded money spent in this manner to be a good investment. He moved that the city donate $1,000. Trustee Nielsen said he had about made up his mind to propose $500, but as the money would redound to the interest of the city taxpayers, and cause thousands to visit Sacmento at that time who would not otherwise do so, he would second the motion. t was adopted unanimously. A communication was received from L P. Martin, Secretary of the Citizens' Com-nittee, asking that the Board of Trustees neet at Eldred Hall in the evening, for the purpose of discussing sanitary measures with the Board of Trade and others interested. The invitation was accepted and ordered placed on file. The following resolution, which, by the way, is the first step toward the filling of China slough, was read and adopted: Resolved, That it is the intention of the Board of Trustees to have the alley between H and I streets, from Second to Sixth streets, graded to the official grade. Resolved further, that the exterior boundaries of the district of land affected thereby are hereby declared to be, the south line of H street, extended on the north, the north side of I street on the south, the east line of Second street on the west, and the west line of Sixth street on the east.

It was also ordered that the following b stablished as the official grade of the alley between H and I, from Second to Sixth streets, at the points named: East side of Second street, 29 feet; 100 feet east of east line of Second street, 24.5; center of Third street, 22.5; center of Fourth street, 22.5; center of Fifth street, 22.5; center of railroad, to track to I street, 29; center of Sixth street, 29 feet.

The City Engineer filed a lengthy com munication in reference to sewage. He said several new sewers will have to be constructed in the near future, in the alley be tween J and K streets, from Third t Fourth, and I and J streets, from Fifth t Eighth, in the laying of which what known as vitrified stone pipe will be used. In the alleys mentioned the grades are quire into the matter, and punish the of-fender if he deserved it.....Pat Dugan, for will be put down on such a grade that they can be easily flushed. FILLING CHINA SLOUGH.

Speedy Method Proposed, with Estimated Cost, Etc. A. J. Gardiner, a practical mechanic of this city, who has assisted in constructing works such as described below, and has tive Sons appeared and pressed their claim witnessed the operation of the machinery referred to, and has seen the results of the Admission Day celebration, which writes as follows to the Record-Union: Permit me to suggest through your columns a few facts relative to the proposed methods of filling-in China slough. The system heretofore adopted for that purpose, that of hauling dirt by means of teams, is the most expensive, as perhaps a compari-son of the following figures will show. The idea of dividing it into two parts, by filling-in the alley running north and south from Third to Sixth streets between H and I, might prove a temporary remedy as a sanitary measure, while a fatal epidemic threatens our existence; but the evil would still exist, if in a less hideous form.

The scheme of running a flume from the prove a success if the fall is great enough o carry the sand in sufficient quantities Yet it would certatnly take several "wet" several property owners to pool their issues n this case, what is now the most serious npediment to the good health, progress and prosperity of Sacramento might, by a ittle management, prove an inestimab blessing to all concerned. The area of the contaminating pool is about four and three-quarters blocks of land submerged. The locality of the difficulty, and its clos proximity to a river which affords an inexaustible supply of sand, naturally suggests o those who have had the opportunity of seeing the successful operation of the nethods adopted by other corporations in similar cases the propriety of following their example, and dredging the river bot om, say at a point above the Pioneer Mills nd drifting the material so lifted through egg-shaped flumes, raised to a sufficient elevation at the starting point to insure a ontinuous flow of the debris emptied into it to the place of deposit. To show the feasibility of this plan I will present one o the many official reports for your perusal n a somewhat abbreviated form.

Mr. Deas, of the Board of Trustees of the ity of Glascow, Scotland, reports for the year ending June 30, 1871, that dredger No. 8, working 2,419‡ engine hours, lifted 430,240 cubic yards of sand, silt and gravel at the rate of 177.80 yards per hour, at a cost of 5 1-10 cents per cubic yard, which was afterward conveyed in barges a distance of twenty-seven miles and dumped at a cost of 11 cents per yard. The working ost of the dredger for the season, includng hire, repairs, wages of employes, coa and stores, amounted to $22,587 67. Of the four and three-quarters blocks in China slough, the water on one, or perhaps more, is but four feet deep, yet the whole area may average twenty feet in depth below the level of the basements in other parts of the city. Thus, four and three-quarters blocks 320 feet wide and 20 feet deep, equa-382,815 cubic yards; and four and uarter blocks of street, north and south 420 feet, 80 by 20, equal 105,777 cubic yards and three and one-half blocks, east and west, 400 feet, 80 by 20, equal 82,963 cubic yards—total, 571,555 cubic yards—which, if dredged and thrown into the flume at cents per cubic yard, would cost $28,577 75 whereas if it were hauled by teams i would cost about 381 cents per cubic yard, allowing $5 for team per day, including loading and emptying one load of one cubic yard thirteen times a day. Without ntering into the minutia of the case I will simply leave the figures to speak for themselves: Total cost of hauling with teams, $220,048 67; cost of dredging, $28,577 75 uma 1 000 feet lang $5 000 Cost of dred 571,555 cubic yards, at 5 cents per yard, $28,577 75, plus one-third to replace water taken up in transmission, $42,105. You will observe I have not estimated he cost of water used for flushing, as I consider the city would willingly furnish that free of charge. BRIEF NOTES.
